

Read Before Filling Out Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property & Debts & Values (Form 4)

Divorce can have serious long-term legal and financial consequences. Only a lawyer who agrees to represent you can tell you about your options based on your circumstances.

This Exhibit A (Form 4) is part of the Filing for Divorce Together – With Children forms packet. You may use this forms packet if All of the following are true:

- You and your spouse are currently in communication with each other.
- You and your spouse agree on All issues. (Both spouses must agree in writing.)
- The spouse listed as Plaintiff has lived in North Dakota for at least the last 6 months.
- All of the minor children of the marriage have lived in North Dakota with a spouse for at least the past 6 months (or since birth);

*OR***

Within the past 6 months, North Dakota was the home state of all of the children of the marriage and one spouse still lives in North Dakota.

- This is the only legal action in North Dakota, any other state, or tribe between you and your spouse regarding the marriage or your minor children.
- The reason for your divorce is irreconcilable differences (no-fault by either spouse).
- If either spouse is currently in the military, they're not deploying or deployed.
- There's no domestic violence protection order or disorderly conduct restraining order currently in effect regarding either spouse.

You & Your Spouse Must Complete and Sign the Settlement Agreement (Form 3), Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property & Debt & Values (Form 4), and Exhibit B: Parenting Plan (Form 5). Consult a lawyer if you're unsure how to proceed.

The Exhibit A (Form 4) must be filled out completely and signed by Both spouses. If this form isn't filled out completely and signed by both spouses, it may not be accepted for filing or your case may be dismissed without granting a divorce.

Retirement assets: If you decide to divide retirement assets, you need an additional court order called a "Qualified Domestic Relations Order," or QDRO, to make the division effective. A QDRO form isn't available through the North Dakota Legal Self Help Center. It's strongly recommended that you hire a lawyer to prepare a QDRO. If both spouses keep their own retirement assets, or don't have retirement assets, a QDRO isn't necessary.

Debts: If a spouse is ordered to pay a debt of the marriage and that spouse doesn't pay, the creditor may still seek payment of the debt from the other spouse.

Don't include this cover sheet when you file the completed form.

Filing for Divorce Together – With Children

Instructions for Form 4: Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property & Debts & Values

(Form 4: Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property & Debts & Values is part of the Filing for Divorce Together – With Children packet of forms. Review the instructions for the packet of forms. You must complete the Settlement Agreement, Exhibit A, and Exhibit B before completing the Complaint.)

ND Legal Self Help Center Staff and Court employees can't help you fill out forms. If you're unsure how to proceed, consult a lawyer.

ND Legal Self Help Center forms aren't official court forms. Judges and courts aren't required to accept them. There's no guarantee Center forms will be accepted. Use at your own risk.

Don't include these instruction sheets when you serve or file the completed form.

Fill out Exhibit A (Form 4) ONLY if you and your spouse agree on ALL issues in the Settlement Agreement (Form 3), Exhibit A (Form 4), and Exhibit B (Form 5). If you haven't reached a full agreement on ALL issues, you can't use this packet of forms.

Even if You Don't Have Any Property or Debt, you and your spouse must complete this form. If you attempt to file this packet of forms without including Exhibit A (Form 4), the Clerk of Court won't accept your other completed forms for filing.

The Plaintiff & Defendant Must Work Together to Complete & Sign This Form:

Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property & Debts & Values (Form 4) tells the judge or judicial referee the following:

- The value of your assets and debts;
- How you agree to divide your assets and debts; and
- Allows the judge or judicial referee to determine the fairness to both spouses of your agreed on division of property and the debts.

(The Exhibit A: Confidential Division of Property and Debt and Values (Form 4) is a confidential court record that isn't generally available to be viewed by the public after the document is filed with the clerk of court. However, any person with good cause may make a written request to the judge or judicial referee for access to Exhibit A (Form 4).)

If a person makes a written request, they must notify the parties in the divorce. The parties then have the option to tell the judge or judicial referee in writing why they agree or disagree with the request. If the judge or judicial referee finds that the public interest, or the personal interest of the person making the request, outweighs the privacy interest of the parties, or their dependent children, the judge or judicial referee grants access to Exhibit A (Form 4).)

Equitable Distribution of Property & Debt in Divorce

Section 14-05-24 of the North Dakota Century Code requires an equitable distribution of property and debt in a divorce. This is also called equitable division of property and debts.

Equitable distribution means that property and debts are divided fairly, rather than equally.

When the judge or judicial referee reviews your completed and signed Exhibit A (Form 4), they will consider the following factors (the Ruff-Fischer guidelines) to decide if you and your spouse have reached an equitable distribution of property in your Exhibit A (Form 4) agreement:

- The respective ages of the spouses;
- The earning ability of each spouse;
- The duration of the marriage and conduct of the spouses during the marriage;
- The station in life of each spouse;
- The circumstances and necessities of each spouse;
- The health and physical condition of each spouse;
- Their financial circumstances as shown by the property owned at the time, its value at the time, its income-producing capacity, if any, whether accumulated before or after the marriage; and
- Such other matters that may be material.

The division of property, once approved by the judge or judicial referee, is final and can only be changed under limited circumstances. Consult a Lawyer if you have Any Questions!

Definitions:

Assets – Everything owned by either spouse, whether owned jointly or individually, or acquired before or during the marriage. Assets include, but aren't limited to, real property, cars, furniture, bank accounts, jewelry, life insurance policies, businesses, and retirement plans.

Date of Valuation – The date the Fair Market Value (FMV) was established.

Debts (also called Liabilities) – Everything owed by either spouse, whether owed jointly or individually, or incurred before or during the marriage. Debts include, but aren't limited to, mortgage, credit cards, student loans and car loans.

Equitable Distribution (also called Equitable Division) – Marital property and debt is divided equitably (fairly) in a divorce. Equitable distribution doesn't mean equal distribution.

Equity – Fair Market Value (FMV) of the asset, real property, or personal property, minus the debt connected to the asset, real property or personal property.

Fair Market Value (FMV), or Market Value – The price at which the property would sell.

Liabilities – See Debts.

Marital Property – All of the assets and debts owned by either spouse, whether owned or owed jointly or individually, or acquired or incurred before or during the marriage.

Net Value – See Equity.

Personal property – every kind of property that isn't real property.

Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) – an order of the court that directs the administrator of a retirement plan to divide retirement assets as granted in a divorce judgment. There are many different QDRO's that are specific to the type of retirement plan. For more information about QDRO's, go to dol.gov/agencies/ebsa/workers-and-families/separation-and-divorce and scroll to the "Retirement" section.

***If you divide a retirement asset between spouses, a QDRO is required. The spouses Must present a proposed QDRO to the court to consider and sign. The court Won't draft a QDRO for you. The ND Legal Self Help Center Doesn't have QDRO forms or instructions. Center staff Can't help you draft a QDRO. Consult a lawyer when dividing a retirement asset!***

Real Property (also called Real Estate) – Land either with or without buildings on it. For example, a home is real property.

Secured Debt – A debt that's backed by collateral you, the borrower, have. Collateral is an asset of value pledged to secure a debt. (For example, a home loan is a secured debt because you put your home up as collateral to secure the loan.)

Unsecured Debt – Debt that isn't backed by collateral. Instead, unsecured debt relies on consideration. Consideration refers to the benefit each party receives in exchange for what the party gives up. Consideration may be a promise, performance, or forbearance. (Unsecured debts may include credit cards, medical bills, utility bills, etc.)

Valuation Date – This is the date on which the fair market value (FMV) of property is established. This is also the date the total amount owed on a debt or liability is established. When you divorce, you need to figure out the valuation date for your property and debt.

See N.D.C.C. Section 14-05-24\(1\) for the valuation dates for property and debt in a divorce.

In general, the valuation date is the date to which both spouses agree.

There may be property to which federal law applies. If so, the valuation date is the date required by the federal law(s) that applies to the property.

Top of form (Caption): Fill in the caption exactly as you filled in the caption on Form 3: Settlement Agreement.

Paragraphs 1 & 2: If the statements in Paragraphs 1 and 2 aren't true, Stop! You can't use this form or the Filing for Divorce Together – With Children packet of forms.

Paragraph 3: Real Property Jointly Owned by Both Spouses. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, complete all of the information. Don't leave any blanks.

The legal description of the real property isn't the street address. The legal description may be found on the warranty deed, mortgage, title insurance, or from the County Recorder.

Paragraph 4: Real Property Solely Owned by Plaintiff. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, complete all of the information. Don't leave any blanks.

The legal description of the real property isn't the street address. The legal description may be found on the warranty deed, mortgage, title insurance, or from the County Recorder.

Paragraph 5: Real Property Solely Owned by Defendant. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, complete all of the information. Don't leave any blanks.

The legal description of the real property isn't the street address. The legal description may be found on the warranty deed, mortgage, title insurance, or from the County Recorder.

- Paragraph 6: Motor Vehicles, Boats, Watercraft, Campers, Snowmobiles, or Trailers. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for every motor vehicle, boats, watercraft, camper, snowmobile, or trailer you and your spouse own jointly and separately, acquired both before and during the marriage.

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 6 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

- Paragraph 7: Household Goods, Furniture, and Furnishings. Before you complete Paragraph 7, you and your spouse must agree how to divide all of the household goods, furniture, and furnishings you own jointly and separately, acquired both before and during the marriage.

After you divide all of your household goods, furniture, and furnishings, you must agree on the total value of each spouse's share of divided household goods, furniture, and furnishings.

Fill in the total agreed upon value of each spouse's share of the divided household goods, furniture, and furnishings.

- Paragraph 8: Other Personal Property. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of the other personal property you and your spouse own jointly and separately, acquired both before and during the marriage, that isn't listed anywhere else on Exhibit A (Form 4).

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 7 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

Caution for Paragraphs 9 & 10: Dividing Pension Plans and Retirement Accounts

Dividing pension plans and retirement accounts is extremely complicated. You and your spouses are responsible for making sure these assets are divided with a separate court order. The separate court order is called a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) and the parties are responsible for getting their own proposed QDRO and presenting the proposed QDRO to the judge or judicial referee to sign.

The judge or judicial referee Won't draft a QDRO document or an order including a QDRO. The ND Legal Self Help Center Doesn't have QDRO forms. Center staff Can't help you draft a QDRO or help you get a proposed QDRO.

If Plaintiff's plan will be divided, the Plaintiff is responsible for getting the proposed QDRO for the judge or judicial referee to sign.

If Defendant's plan will be divided, the Defendant is responsible for getting the proposed QDRO for the judge or judicial referee to sign.

Contact the plan administrator early in the process. Some plan administrators have sample QDRO documents for you to follow when drafting your own QDRO.

Don't sign the proposed QDRO. The QDRO is signed by the judge or judicial referee.

If neither spouse has pension nor retirement plans, Or each spouse will keep their own pension or retirement plans, Without Dividing The Plans, you don't need to get a QDRO.

Paragraph 9: Plaintiff's Pensions, Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Other Retirement Plans. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of Plaintiff's pensions, profit-sharing plans, IRAs, and other retirement plans.

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 9 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

Paragraph 10: Defendant's Pensions, Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Other Retirement Plans. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of Defendant's pensions, profit-sharing plans, IRAs, and other retirement plans.

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 10 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

- Paragraph 11: Life Insurance. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of the life insurance policies for you and your spouse.

- The face amount of the policy is the amount of the benefit purchased. For example, a $100,000 life insurance policy would have a face amount of $100,000.
- Calculate the cash value – add the total premium and payments made, subtract fees, commission, and expenses charged by the insurer. (You may find the cash value on the life insurance statement or call your insurer to get the cash value.)

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 11 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

- Paragraph 12: Business or Farm Interests or Assets. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of the business or farm interests or assets owned jointly or separately by you and your spouse, acquired both before and during the marriage.

- Examples of business or farm interests or assets include, but aren't limited to, farm machinery, grain on hand, accounts receivable, business equipment, etc.

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 12 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

- Paragraph 13: Financial Assets. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

This is the Paragraph to list other financial assets not listed anywhere else on Exhibit A.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for all of the other financial assets owned jointly or separately by you and your spouse, acquired both before and during the marriage.

- Examples of other financial assets include, but aren't limited to, farm machinery, checking accounts, savings accounts, money market accounts, stocks, bonds, Certificates of Deposit, notes (money owed in writing), money owed (not in writing).

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 13 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

Caution for Paragraph 14: Creditors Not Bound By This Agreement

In general, creditors aren't bound by the agreement of the parties.

When a debt is assigned to a spouse in a divorce judgment and that spouse doesn't pay, the creditor may seek payment from the spouse who wasn't assigned the debt.

Consult a lawyer if you have questions.

- Paragraph 14: Secured and Unsecured Debts and Liabilities. Put a checkmark (✓) next to the statement that's true for your situation.

If you choose the second statement, read the instructions on the form. Complete all of the information for secured and unsecured debt or liability you and your spouse owe jointly and separately, incurred both before and during the marriage. Don't include mortgages on real property. (Mortgages are listed in Paragraphs 3, 4, and 5.)

Don't leave any blanks. If you finish Paragraph 14 and have blank spaces left, type or write "not applicable" in the blank spaces.

- Paragraph 15: Summary. This is the total division of property and debts listed in $$ for Plaintiff and Defendant.

List the total for Plaintiff and the total for Defendant for each category of the Summary.

For both Plaintiff and Defendant, subtract the Mortgages on Real Property and Debts and Liabilities to list the Total.
