

LAW STUDENT REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS/FEEES/CHECKLIST

If it is later than November 1 of your third year of law school, STOP. Refer instead to the Bar Examination Application section at:

<http://www.ndcourts.gov/court/committees/BarBd/information.htm>

Law student registration begins the character and fitness investigation. The Board of Law Examiners uses the services of the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) to assist in conducting an applicant's character and fitness investigation.

The filing of a Law Student Registration does not constitute the filing of a bar examination application. A law student must still separately apply to sit for the Bar exam in their third year.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- * File application with required documentation and fees. Make arrangements for outside documents to be filed with the State Board of Law Examiners (Board). Remind your references and former and present employers to promptly respond to requests from the NCBE.
- * Receive a confirmation letter from the Board. Sometimes a request for further information will be included in the letter. Promptly respond to any request for absent or additional documentation.
- * May receive correspondence directly from NCBE.
- * You will not receive confirmation that your character and fitness investigation is completed.
- * Your investigation is not finalized until after the examination.

REMEMBER WHEN COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION:

It is your responsibility to read and follow all instructions carefully. Failure to comply with any instructions may result in return of your application and late fees.

- * Each question on the application must be answered completely. Give complete addresses, including street names and numbers, city, state, and postal zip codes.
- * Criminal matters - include all adult charges – whether or not they were expunged. Attach the officer's report, complaint, and disposition of charges.
- * Civil Lawsuits – attach complaint and disposition documents.

- * If you recall an item that you failed to include on your law school application, amend your law school application and provide the Board with any follow-up from the Dean's office.
- * If something happens during law school, you must update the law school application and your registration with the Board.
- * Be honest. If in doubt about answering a question, err on the side of providing the information to the Board.
