Penny:

1. In response to the reduction of copies of the transcript proposed by the new rule it seems to me the court needs to decide if the reduction will affect the ability for all the justices to review the record on appeal. If the same availability to review the record is present with 2 copies then I would support the rule change. However, if the reduction in copies would create an obstacle to a full and complete review of the record I would not support the amendment.
