State v. Matthews

No. 20140390

Per Curiam.

[¶1] Antonio Matthews appeals from a district court judgment of conviction on three counts of gross sexual imposition, two counts of robbery, two counts of felonious restraint, and one count of terrorizing. He argues that the evidence presented to the district court was insufficient to sustain his convictions and that his convictions should be vacated or, in the alternative, remanded for a new trial. We summarily affirm the convictions under N.D.R.App.P. 35.1(a)(3).
