NORTH DAKOTA LEAGUE OF CITIES' MOTION FOR FILING OF BRIEF OF AMICUS CURIAE NORTH DAKOTA LEAGUE OF CITIES
IN SUPPORT OF CITY OF DRAYTON AND OTTER TAIL POWER COMPANY
IN OTTER TAIL POWER COMPANY'S CROSS-APPEAL SEEKING REVERSAL OF THE NORTH DAKOTA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION'S DECISION

[¶1] The North Dakota League of Cities, by and through its attorney, Stephanie Dassinger Engebretson, moves this Court for an order pursuant to North Dakota Rule of Appellate Procedure 29 to permit the North Dakota League of Cities to file a brief as an amicus curiae in the above-entitled appeal.

[¶2] The North Dakota League of Cities interest in this matter is that an adverse ruling in this appeal could impair cities' ability to have effective franchise agreements for newly annexed parts of the city. It is desirable for there to be an amicus curiae in this matter because it will provide context for why a city's interest in protecting its franchise authority is so important it is enshrined in the North Dakota Constitution.

[¶]3] THEREFORE, the North Dakota League of Cities respectfully requests that this Court issue an order granting this motion. A Brief of Amicus Curiae North Dakota League of Cities in Support of City of Drayton and Otter Tail Power Company In Otter Tail Power Company's Cross-Appeal Seeking Reversal of the North Dakota Public Service Commission's Decision is conditionally filed with this motion.

Dated this 26th day of August, 2022.
