

Read Before Completing the Amended Parenting Plan (Proposed)

This Amended Parenting Plan form is part of the Modifying Primary Residential Responsibility (Custody) with a Written Agreement forms packet.

Use this form Only If your parenting plan is a separate exhibit, attachment, or appendix, which is referenced in the judgment.

To complete this form, you must recreate your parenting plan by doing 3 things:

- 1) Copy the entire contents of each unamended paragraph of the parenting plan referenced in the judgment you're asking the court to modify; and
- 2) When you come to the paragraphs you want to modify, copy and underline the Exact wording of the amended paragraph from your proposed order.
- 3) If you're asking the court to add new paragraphs, copy and underline the Exact wording of each New paragraph from your proposed order.

You have two options to recreate your parenting plan using this form:

Option One: Use the fillable form as is. This form includes 10 blank pages in which you may type the words and formatting of your proposed amended parenting plan, including paragraph numbers. If your proposed amended parenting plan is more than 10 pages in length, use Option Two.

Caution: The ND Legal Self Help Center webpage doesn't automatically save what you type into a form. Save the form as you go, so you don't lose what you've typed.

Option Two: Use a word processing program, such as Microsoft Word, WordPerfect, Google Docs, or OpenOffice, to type the words and formatting of your proposed amended parenting plan, including paragraph numbers.

Copy and paste the Entire first page of the form, Except the italicized paragraphs in (parentheses), into the first page of your document. Then, copy and paste all of the words on the second page of the form into your document.

Important: Make sure the formatting of the words you copied and pasted are the same as the formatting in the amended judgment form.

Then, type the words and formatting of your proposed amended parenting plan, including paragraph numbers. Include the Judicial Officer signature block at the end.

Don't include this cover sheet when you serve or file the completed form.

Dated _____.

(Judge or Judicial Referee of District Court)

Completing the (Proposed) Amended Parenting Plan:

First: Using the page numbering at the bottom of each page, number the pages of your (proposed) amended parenting plan.

- Count the total number of pages. Don't include this page of instructions in your total page count.
- Fill in the total number of pages in the second blank space of the page number on each page.
 - For example, if you have 4 total pages, the second blank space of the page number will look like this: "Page ____ of 4."
- Now fill in the first blank space of the page number on each page.
 - Fill in "1" in the first blank space of the page number on the first page.
 - Fill in "2" in the first blank space of the page number on the second page.
 - And so on for each page of your (proposed) amended parenting plan.
 - For example, if you have 4 total pages, the page number on each consecutive page will look like this: "Page 1 of 4," "Page 2 of 4," "Page 3 of 4," "Page 4 of 4."

Second: Don't sign and date the (proposed) amended parenting plan. If the court grants your motion, and uses your proposed order to amend judgment, the judicial officer assigned to your case signs and dates the order. If your proposed amended parenting plan is also accepted by the court, the judicial officer assigned to your case signs and dates the amended parenting plan. The proposed amended judgment isn't effective until the following are signed and dated:

- The order to amend judgment is signed and dated by the judicial officer;
- The proposed amended judgment is signed and dated by the clerk of court; and
- The proposed amended parenting plan is signed and dated by the judicial officer or the clerk of court.
