Order For Judgment

Let Judgment Be Entered Accordingly.

(Judge or Judicial Referee of District Court)

First: If you didn't use paragraph 3, 4 or 5 for your (proposed) order to amend judgment, remove the unused page or pages. If you didn't use the paragraphs to add provisions related to decision making, information sharing, legal residence of the child(ren) for school attendance, parenting time (visitation) schedule, transportation and exchange arrangements, procedure for review of the parenting plan, dispute resolution, and child tax deduction, remove the unused pages.

Second: Using the page numbering at the bottom of each page, number the pages of your (proposed) order to amend judgment.

- Count the total number of pages. Don't include this page of instructions in your total page count.
- Fill in the total number of pages in the second blank space of the page number on each page.
 - For example, if you have 4 total pages, the second blank space of the page number will look like this: "Page ___ of 4."
- Now fill in the first blank space of the page number on each page.
 - Fill in "1" in the first blank space of the page number on the first page.
 - Fill in "2" in the first blank space of the page number on the second page.
 - And so on for each page of your stipulated agreement.
 - For example, if you have 4 total pages, the page number on each consecutive page will look like this: "Page 1 of 4," "Page 2 of 4," "Page 3 of 4," "Page 4 of 4."

Third: Don't sign and date the (proposed) order to amend judgment. If the court grants your motion, and uses your proposed order to amend judgment, the judicial officer assigned to your case will sign and date the order. The proposed order to amend judgment isn't effective until it is signed and dated by the judicial officer.
