Read Before Filling Out The Settlement Agreement Form

Divorce can have serious long-term legal and financial consequences. Only a lawyer who has agreed to represent you can tell you about your options based on your circumstances.

This Settlement Agreement form is part of the “Divorce with Agreement – With Children” forms packet. The forms packet may be used if you answer “Yes” to All of the following:

- Both spouses are currently in communication with each other.
- Both spouses agree on All issues. (See Forms 3 & 4 for the issues that both spouses must agree to in writing. Both spouses must date and sign Forms 3 & 4.)
- The spouse listed as Plaintiff has lived in North Dakota for at least the last 6 months.
- All of the minor children of the marriage have lived in North Dakota with a spouse for at least the past 6 months (or since birth);

OR

Within the past 6 months, North Dakota was the home state of all of the children of the marriage and one spouse still lives in North Dakota.

- This is the only legal action pending between the spouses regarding this marriage or the minor children of the marriage.
- The grounds for the divorce are irreconcilable differences (no-fault by either spouse).
- If either spouse is currently in the military, they’re not deploying or deployed.
- There’s no domestic violence protection order or disorderly conduct restraining order currently in effect regarding either spouse.

Read the instructions for the forms packet and the individual form Before filling out the Settlement Agreement. If you’re unsure how to proceed, consult a lawyer.

The Settlement Agreement form must be filled out completely and signed by Both spouses.

If this form isn’t filled out completely and signed by both spouses, it may not be accepted.

If the form is accepted for filing, but the judge or judicial referee assigned to the divorce decides the form is incomplete, your case may be dismissed without granting a divorce.

A note about retirement assets: If you decide to divide retirement assets, you’ll likely need an additional court order called a “Qualified Domestic Relations Order,” or QDRO, to make the division effective. A QDRO form isn’t available through the North Dakota Legal Self Help Center. It’s strongly recommended that you hire a lawyer to prepare a QDRO. If both spouses keep their own retirement assets, or don’t have retirement assets, a QDRO isn’t necessary.

A note about debts: If a spouse is ordered to pay a debt of the marriage and that spouse doesn’t pay, the creditor may still seek payment of the debt from the other spouse.

Don’t include this cover sheet when you file the completed form.
