INSTRUCTIONS FOR CAPTION AND SIGNATURE JUVENILE COURT FORM

ND Legal Self Help Center Staff and Court employees cannot help you fill out forms. If you are unsure how to proceed, consult a lawyer.

As a self-represented individual, you are responsible for following the same laws, rules, and procedures as an attorney.

There is no guarantee that all judges and courts will accept forms available through the ND Legal Self Help Center. Use at your own risk.

Do not include these instruction sheets when you serve or file the completed form.

Documents filed in Juvenile Court Actions After the Action Has Started

Documents filed after the start of a North Dakota Juvenile Court action must meet certain formatting and signature requirements.

The ND Legal Self Help Center does not have forms or instructions for after a Juvenile Court action has started. You may find this General-Use caption and signature form of interest as a starting point for creating legal documents for use in existing juvenile court actions.

Laws and Rules Related to Juvenile Court Actions

Following are legal research starting points related to Juvenile Court actions. You will need to conduct additional legal research into your legal issue.

Chapter 27-20 of the North Dakota Century Code contains laws enacted by the North Dakota Legislative Assembly that apply in juvenile court actions.

The North Dakota Rules of Juvenile Procedure govern all juvenile court actions.

The North Dakota Rules of Evidence govern in juvenile court actions, unless an exception applies from Rule 1101 of the North Dakota Rules of Evidence.

See also, the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure and the North Dakota Rules of Court. These rules may be used to fill in gaps in Juvenile Court process that Chapter 27-20 and the North Dakota Rules of Juvenile Procedure do not cover.

Definition of a “Child” for Juvenile Court Actions

The child who is the focus of the juvenile court action must be either:

1. Unmarried and under the age of 18; or
2. Under the age of 20 and committed the delinquent act while under the age of 18.

Only Certain Types of Actions are Allowed in Juvenile Court

Delinquency: A delinquent child is a child who has committed an act that is considered a crime and is in need of treatment or rehabilitation.

Unruly: An unruly child is a child who has committed an offense that only applies to a child, such as truancy, consuming or possessing alcohol, disobedience of parental commands, or using tobacco, and is in need of treatment or rehabilitation.

Deprivation: A deprived child is a child who is “without proper parental care or control necessary for the child’s physical, mental or emotional health, or morals, and the deprivation is not due primarily to the lack of financial means of the child’s parents, guardian or other custodian.”

Termination of Parental Rights: An order terminating parental rights of a parent terminates all the parent's rights and obligations with respect to the child and of the child to or through the parent arising from the parental relationship.

This form is not a fillable form. To create your legal document using this form, you have at least two options:

Option One: Print this form on 8 ½” x 11” paper and hand-write your legal document. Your hand-writing must be easily readable. Black ink is preferred.

Option Two: Copy and paste the Caption and Signature sections into a word processing program, for example, Microsoft Word, WordPerfect, Google Docs, or OpenOffice. Use this form and these instructions as your guide to format your legal document.

Caption (top of form):

- If you copied and pasted the Caption section into a word processing program, format your caption as close as you can to the Caption section of the form.
- Complete the caption exactly as it appears in the Juvenile Court summons.
- Fill in the title of the document.

Write/Type Your Juvenile Court Legal Document:

- Write or type your Juvenile Court legal document in your own words.
- If you need to add additional pages, add the additional page or pages between the Caption page and the Signature page. Write or type on one side only of each additional page.

Paragraph Numbering:

- Each paragraph of your written or typed Juvenile Court legal document must be numbered.

Date and Signature:

- The date and signature are at the end of your Juvenile Court legal document.
- If you copied and pasted the Signature section into a word processing program, format the signature section as close as you can to the Signature section of the form.
- You, the self-represented party, date and sign the document.

WARNING: By signing your name you are telling the Juvenile Court that you are telling the truth and that you have a good faith reason for your requests. If you are not telling the truth or if you are misleading the Juvenile Court, or if you are serving or filing this document for an improper purpose, the Juvenile Court could find you in contempt or you may be prosecuted for perjury.

- Fill your printed name, address and telephone.

If you have a physical address and a mailing address, type or write both addresses using the lines provided, and the space next to the address lines.

Verification and Notarization:

Review the Juvenile Court laws and rules to determine if your legal document must be verified. (For example, petitions to start a juvenile court action must be verified.)

If your legal document must be verified, include the following verification statement after your signature and address:

VERIFICATION

[Your Name], being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and says that I am the [Petitioner, Movant, etc.] in the above-entitled action; that I have read the [Title of Your Legal Document] and know the contents thereof and that the same is true, except as to matters stated therein upon information and belief as to those matters I state that I believe them to be true.
