North Dakota Century Code Section 30.1-26-04 governs power of attorney for care and custody of a minor child(ren).

What is a Power of Attorney for a Minor Child?

A Power of Attorney appoints a person called the Attorney in Fact to step into the shoes of the parent and make decisions for the minor child. A Power of Attorney does not create a guardianship. The Power of Attorney cannot last more than 6 months.

The Attorney in Fact must be a responsible adult, and does not need to be related to the parent or the minor child.

A parent or guardian may delegate any of the parent's or guardian's powers regarding care, custody, or property of the minor child or ward, except the power to consent to marriage or adoption of a minor child.

The Power of Attorney takes effect when the parent completes the form and signs it under oath in front of a notary public or clerk of court.

A Power of Attorney does not require a court order. It remains in effect until the date stated on the form, but that date cannot be more than 6 months into the future.

The parent that delegated their authority with a Power of Attorney may revoke the Power of Attorney at any time before the expiration date. The revocation should be in writing.
