You have received a motion for visitation assistance. This document is your chance to respond to the statements made by the other party. Your return and affidavit must be in the mail and filed with the Court within thirteen (13) days of the date of mailing of the motion. The Court may in its discretion disregard any return served or filed with the Court after this date.

Please respond to each of the statements checked by the other party. Attach additional sheets as necessary.

I. If the other party only wanted to enforce the current order.

____ 1. Directing you to obey the existing visitation order. (If this statement is checked on the motion papers, what is your response to this request?)

_____
_____
_____

II. If the other party wanted to change the order.

____ 2. The other party has stated that there are reasons which were unknown to the Court, or that have arisen since the last Court order that dictate that a change in the current visitation schedules would be in the best interests of the minor children. (What is your response to the reason given?)
