

North Dakota Supreme Court Law Library
Judicial Wing, 2nd Floor
600 E. Boulevard Avenue
Bismarck, ND 58505-0450
(701) 328-4496

PUBLIC ACCESS COMPUTER USE

Law Library public access computers are to be used for legal research ONLY.

You may not use Law Library computers to access anything not connected to legal research.

Law Library staff may set time limits on public access computer use.

Due to the limited Law Library resources available for providing public access to legal research resources on the internet, the Library reserves the right to periodically set time and other limits on the use of Library computers.

You may e-mail legal research material to yourself, as long as the material is in the public domain or is non-copyrighted.

Law Library computers are not set up to allow downloading to your own drive.

The Law Library regularly deletes files from Law Library computers.

You may print for $0.20 per page.

The Law Library does not charge for the first 10 pages.

You may use ONLY ONE Law Library public access computer at a time.

You may not download or upload software or other executable files to or from the Law Library computers.

You may not alter or damage the current settings of the Law Library computers.

You may not use Law Library computers for any illegal activity.

North Dakota Supreme Court Law Library Mission Statement

The Primary purpose of the law library is to support the legal information needs of the North Dakota Supreme Court and the judicial system. The secondary purpose is to support the legislature and administrative agencies of the state. The library's resources are also available to the members of the North Dakota bar and the public. The availability to others is limited to the extent it does not compromise the library's primary purpose.