

Objection To Name Change Of An Adult

An Informational Guide to a North Dakota State Civil Court Process

The North Dakota Legal Self Help Center provides resources to people who represent themselves in civil matters in the North Dakota State District Courts. The information provided in this informational guide isn't intended for legal advice but only as a general guide to a civil court process.

If you decide to represent yourself, you need to do additional research to prepare.

If you're unsure how to proceed, don't know if this informational guide suits your needs, or need legal advice or legal representation, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota. For more information about finding a lawyer, go to ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/finding-a-lawyer.

When you represent yourself, you're expected to know and follow the law, including:

- State or federal laws that apply to your case;
- Case law, also called court opinions, that applies to your case; and
- Court rules that apply to your case, which may include:
 - North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure;
 - North Dakota Rules of Court;
 - North Dakota Rules of Evidence;
 - North Dakota Administrative Rules and Orders;
 - Any local court rules.

Links to the laws, case law, and court rules can be found at ndcourts.gov.

A glossary with definitions of legal terms is available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/glossary.

When you represent yourself, you're held to same requirements and responsibilities as a lawyer, even if you don't understand the rules or procedures.

This information isn't a complete statement of the law. This covers basic information about the process of objecting to a name change of an adult in a North Dakota state district court. The Center isn't responsible for any consequences that may result from the information provided. The information can't replace the advice of a lawyer licensed in North Dakota.*

Use at your own risk.

This Informational Guide is made up of three sections:

Section One – Information about objections to the name change. (Pages 2-5)

Section Two – Basic court process for objecting to the name change. (Pages 5-11)

Section Three – Common objection documents are attached. (Pages 11-14)

Section One:

Information About Objections To The Name Change Of An Adult In North Dakota State District Court

An adult individual may petition (ask) a North Dakota state district court to legally change their name.

A North Dakota state district court may legally change an adult individual's name if:

- The individual making the request is a resident of the North Dakota county for at least the past 6 months before filing the request;
- The individual making the request is either a United States citizen, or a United States permanent resident alien; and
- The request isn't made to defraud or mislead, is made in good faith, won't cause injury to an individual, and won't compromise public safety.

Objections to the requested name change must be made within 30 days of the date of publication of the Notice of Petition for Name Change.

Overview Of The Process For Objecting To A Name Change Of An Adult

Step One: The objecting party serves an Objection to Petition for Name Change of an Adult on the Petitioner, or the Petitioner's lawyer, within 30 days of the date of publication of the Notice of Petition for Name Change.

(The Notice of Petition for Name Change is published in the newspaper in the North Dakota county where the Petitioner resides.)

Step Two: The person who mails the Objection to Petition for Name Change of an Adult completes a Declaration of Service by Mail.

Step Three: The objecting party files the Objection to Petition for Name Change of an Adult and Declaration of Service by Mail.

(The objecting party can't file the Objection and Declaration of Service by Mail until after the Petitioner has filed the Petition for Name Change.)

Step Four: If a hearing is scheduled and you receive notice of the hearing, you must attend the hearing if you'd like your Objection considered.

Laws And Rules

Requirements for name changes are found in North Dakota Century Code Chapter 32-28.

Only a lawyer licensed in North Dakota who has agreed to represent you can give you legal advice, which includes interpreting how the laws apply to your situation.

Definitions

Adult: An individual who is eighteen years or older.

Clerk of Court: A court official who keeps track of court files, records and exhibits. All documents that are required to be filed with a North Dakota state district court are filed with the office of the clerk of court.

Notice of Petition of Name Change: The notice published in an official county newspaper where the Petitioner resides giving notice of the Petitioner's intent to change their name. This notice must be published 30 days before the Petition can be filed with the court.

Objecting Party: The person who objects to the name change and serves and files an Objection regarding the name change.

Petition for Name Change: The legal document filed by the Petitioner to request that the North Dakota State District Court legally change their name. The Petition for Name Change describes how the Petitioner meets the legal requirements to change their name.

Petitioner: The adult individual who starts the request to legally change their name by publishing a Notice of Name Change in the newspaper and files their Petition for Name Change with the clerk of court.

Waiver of Publication: The Petitioner may ask the North Dakota State District Court to allow them to skip (waive) the requirement to publish notice of their name change when:

- The Petitioner only wants to change their first or middle name; or
- The Petitioner is the victim of domestic violence.

Lawyers Resources And Limited Legal Representation

You aren't required to hire a lawyer to access the state court system. If you decide to represent yourself, you must follow all of the rules, laws and procedures that a lawyer is required to follow.

Lawyer Resources

If you'd like to learn more about finding a lawyer to represent you, go to ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/finding-a-lawyer. You may also find the following options of interest.

- Legal Services of North Dakota is a non-profit organization, providing free legal assistance to North Dakota residents in a variety of matters based on income. Legal Services of North Dakota can also determine whether an applicant meets the income requirements for the Volunteer Lawyers program that offers low-cost legal assistance based on income. The phone number is (800) 634-5263 and the website is legalassist.org.
- Dakota Plains Legal Services is a non-profit legal services organization that provides free legal assistance to low-income individuals, older Americans and veterans. Dakota Plains Legal Services (DPLS) has eight offices and serves communities across South Dakota and North Dakota, including nine tribal nations. DPLS is committed to increasing access to justice with quality legal assistance. Contact information is available on the DPLS webpage of dpls.org.
- The State Bar Association provides a lawyer referral service to match paying clients in need of legal services with lawyers. The phone number is (866) 450-9579 and the website is sband.org.
- For a list of all lawyers who are licensed to practice in North Dakota, go to the North Dakota Supreme Court website at ndcourts.gov/Lawyers. You can narrow your search by name or location.

Limited Legal Representation

Lawyers licensed to practice in North Dakota may provide Limited Legal Representation in civil actions. Limited Legal Representation (sometimes called "unbundling") is a way that a lawyer can help you with part of your case while you do the rest of your case. You pay for the part of the case the lawyer handled. For example:

- You may want a lawyer to give you an expert opinion about your options, or your legal rights and responsibilities;
- You can consult with a lawyer to prepare or review your paperwork, but attend hearings yourself;
- You can represent yourself through the whole case, and periodically consult with a lawyer who can coach you on the law, procedures and strategy;
- You can do the preparation yourself and hire a lawyer just to make the court appearance for you.

You and the lawyer must agree in writing to Limited Legal Representation.

North Dakota Free Legal Answers

This civil legal program is a partnership of the American Bar Association and the State Bar Association of North Dakota.

The purpose of the program is to provide free answers to specific civil legal question to low-moderate income North Dakotans who submit their questions online. Anonymous volunteer lawyers answer your question, but can't represent you.

Go to nd.freelegalanswers.org for information about the program, the online application, and, if you qualify, ask your civil legal question.

Please note that this program doesn't provide any assistance with criminal legal questions.

Section Two: The Basic Court Process For Objecting To The Name Change Of An Adult

Common Documents For Objecting To The Name Change Of An Adult

If you want to object to the requested name change of an adult, you need to create your own objection documents.

The legal documents that are commonly required for objecting to the name change of an adult are:

Document Name	Purpose of the Document
Objection to Petition for Name Change	Written document created by the individual who wants to object to the Petition for a name change. This legal document explains the reasons for their objection.
Declaration of Service by Mail	Document which states that the Petitioner was served with a copy of the Objection to Petition for Name Change.

Fillable forms of the legal documents listed above are found in Section Three of this guide.

Other documents that aren't listed above may be required by the individual District Court where the Petition is filed.

If you don't know if you should use this Informational Guide and the forms to object to the Petition for Name Change documents, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota.

If you'd like assistance creating your legal documents, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota.

Ask the lawyer about Limited Legal Representation. Lawyers licensed to practice in North Dakota may agree to help you with part of your civil case, such as preparing legal documents, while you handle the rest of your civil case.

You and the lawyer must agree in writing to Limited Legal Representation.

Step One: The Objecting Party Serves An Objection On The Petitioner Within 30 Days Of The Date Of Publication Of The Notice Of Petition For Name Change.

Important! The written Objection to Petition for Name Change Must be served on the Petitioner, or the Petitioner's lawyer, within 30 days of the date of publication of the Notice of Petition for Name Change.

Petitions for name changes don't require an in-person hearing. The District Court may grant the name change of an adult based only on the documents filed with the clerk of court.

If you miss the deadline for serving your Objection on the Petitioner, or the Petitioner's lawyer, the District Court may not consider your Objection when deciding whether to grant the Petitioner's request to legally change their name.

First: You, the objecting party, calculate your deadline for serving your written Objection to Petition for Name Change.

You have 30 days from the date of publication of the Notice of Petition for Name Change to serve your Objection on the Petitioner.

The Notice of Petition for Name Change is published in the official newspaper of the North Dakota county where the Petitioner resides. If the county doesn't have an official newspaper, the Notice is published in a newspaper that has general circulation in the county.

When calculating your 30-day deadline for service:

- Don't include the date the Notice of Petition for Name Change was published;
- Count forward by calendar days, including Saturdays, Sundays, and North Dakota state holidays; and

- Include the last day of the 30-day period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or North Dakota state holiday, the deadline moves forward to the end of the next day that isn't a Saturday, Sunday, or North Dakota state holiday.

Second: You, the objecting party, create your written Objection to Petition for Name Change.

The objecting party is required to create their written Objection to Petition for Name Change.

A fillable Objection to Petition for Name Change is available in Section Three of this guide (Pages 12-15).

At minimum, include the following in your written Objection to Petition for Name Change:

- ☐ The Caption, or top, of your Objection must include the same information as the Caption of the Notice of Petition for Name Change published in the newspaper.
 - Include "Case Number: _____" in your Caption.
 - If the Notice published in the newspaper lists a case number (or civil number), type or write in the number.
 - If the Notice doesn't include a case number, leave yours blank.
 - See the Caption of the formatting example in Section Three of this guide.
- ☐ Each paragraph must be numbered. All documents that are intended to be filed with a North Dakota state district court must have numbered paragraphs.
- ☐ Your full legal name and relationship to the Petitioner must be stated in your Objection.
- ☐ State your objections in detail. Stick with the facts and avoid opinions.
 - If your Objection is more than one page, type or write only on one side of each page. Don't type or write on the back of any page.
 - Check the box (☑) stating additional sheets are attached.
- ☐ Date and sign your name after the last paragraph of your Objection.
- ☐ Fill in your name, address, telephone number, and email address below the date and your signature. If your mailing address is different from your street address, include both addresses. Write or type your mailing address in the blank space to the right of the address block.

Third: You, the objecting party, make at least two copies of your completed Objection to Petition for Name Change.

Keep one copy for your records.

The other copy of your completed Objection to Petition for Name Change is served on the Petitioner.

Fourth: You, the objecting party, arrange to serve a copy of all pages of your completed Objection to Petition for Name Change on the Petitioner.

A copy of all pages of your completed Objection must be mailed to the Petitioner from a United States Post Office. The completed Objection must be mailed First Class, postage prepaid.

Important! If the Petitioner is represented by a lawyer, mail a copy of your completed Objection to the lawyer instead of the Petitioner.

- If the Notice of Petition for Name Change lists a lawyer, the Petitioner is represented.

Step Two: The Person Who Mailed The Objection To Petition For Name Change Completes The Declaration Of Service By Mail.

The person who took the copy of the Objection to Petition for Name Change to the Post Office and mailed it to the Petitioner, or the Petitioner's lawyer, completes a Declaration of Service by Mail.

A fillable Declaration of Service by Mail forms is available in Section Three of this guide (Pages 12-15).

Complete the Declaration of Service by Mail:

- ☐ The Caption, or top, of the Declaration of Service by Mail must include the same information as the Caption of the Notice of Petition for Name Change published in the newspaper.
 - Include "Case Number: _____" in your Caption.
 - If the Notice published in the newspaper lists a case number (or civil number), type or write in the number.
 - If the Notice doesn't include a case number, leave yours blank.

- ☐ Paragraph 1. Fill in the name of the person who took the documents to the Post Office and mailed them. You can't use this form if the person mailing the documents isn't at least 18 years of age!
- ☐ Paragraph 2. Put a checkmark (✓) in the checkbox next to "Objection to Petition for Name Change." If you served any other documents, write their names on the lines provided, and put a checkmark (✓) in the checkbox next to each document name.
- ☐ Paragraph 3. If this statement isn't true, you can't use the attached Declaration of Service by Mail.
- ☐ Paragraph 4. Fill in the date the documents were mailed.
- ☐ Paragraph 5. Fill in the name and address of the Petitioner, or the Petitioner's lawyer, where the documents were mailed.
- ☐ Paragraph 6. Read carefully! When the person who mailed the documents dates and signs the Declaration of Service by Mail, they state that everything in the Declaration is true and correct, under penalty of perjury.
- ☐ Fill in the Date, City, County, State, and Country where the person who mailed the documents signed the Declaration of Service by Mail.
- ☐ Sign and fill in the address, telephone number and email address. The person who mailed the documents signs and fills in the information below their signature.

Make a copy of the completed, dated and signed Declaration of Service by Mail for your records.

Step Three: File The Original Objection To Petition For Name Change And Declaration Of Service By Mail With The Clerk Of Court.

Important! Since the Petition for Name Change can't be filed with the court until at least 30 days after notice of the Petition is published in the newspaper, the Petition for Name Change may not yet be filed with the clerk of court.

You can't file your Objection to Petition for Name Change documents with the clerk of court until after the Petition for Name Change is filed by the Petitioner. The clerk of court may ask you to check the website frequently to check if the Petition has been filed.

Name Change cases are publically available state court records. You may search publically available North Dakota state court records by the first and last name of the Petitioner.

You can find individual court cases and lists of the documents filed in each case by going to ndcourts.gov/public-access.

- Read the information, then click "Click Here to Proceed."
- Select a location from the pull down menu. Select a county or the State of North Dakota.
- Click the "Civil, Family & Probate Case Records" link.
- To search for the Petitioner by name:
 - Select "Name"
 - In the "Party Information" box:
 - Enter at least the first three letters of the petitioner's current last name, followed by an asterisk (). For example, if the last name is Smith, enter at least smi.
 - Enter at least the first letter of the petitioner's current first name, followed by an asterisk (). For example, if the first name is Jane, enter at least j.
 - In the "Case Types" box, select "Name Change."
 - Click the "Search" box.
- The screen lists publically accessible court cases based on your search.
- To review an individual case and to see the list of documents filed, click on the case number. Case numbers are listed on the left-hand side of the page. (You can't view the documents themselves.)

Important! Be diligent in checking whether the Petition has been filed and file your objection immediately after you determine the Petition has been filed.

Not checking the website and filing your Objection in a timely manner may result in either you being too late to file the Objection or the Objection not being sent to the judge for review.

When you file your Objection with the clerk of court, the clerk gives you the case number for the Petition for Name Change. Write the case number on the top of your objection.

Contact information for clerks of court by county is available at ndcourts.gov/court-locations.

- ☐ File all pages of the following with the clerk of court of the North Dakota State District Court where the Petition for Name Change is filed:
 - Original, completed Objection to Petition for Name Change;
 - Any other documents you served on the Petitioner with a copy of your Objection to Petition for Name Change (you may not have any other documents); and
 - Original, completed Declaration of Service By Mail.

You may be asked to pay a filing fee. Contact the clerk of court where the Petition for Name Change is filed and ask if you're required to pay a filing fee. If a filing fee is required, ask the clerk of court for the amount.

If a filing fee is required and you can't afford to pay the filing fee, forms and instructions to ask the court to waive the filing fee are available at Filing Fee Waiver Request.

- File the completed fee waiver forms at the same time as your objection documents.
(Make sure you have a copy of the completed fee waiver forms for your files!)

Step Four: If A Hearing On The Petition For Name Change Is Scheduled And You Receive Notice, You Must Attend The Hearing If You Want Your Objection To Be Considered.

A hearing isn't required for Petitions for Name Changes. However, the judge may decide a hearing is necessary. If the judge decides a hearing is necessary, a hearing date, time and location is scheduled.

If you're notified in writing of the date, time and location of the hearing, you must attend if you want your objection to be considered.

Be prepared to prove your statements in your Objection to Petition for Name Change.

Section Three:
Forms of Common Documents Required For An Objection To Petition For Name Change

Forms of common Objection to Petition for Name Change documents are found on the following pages:

- Objection to Petition for Name Change; and
- Declaration of Service by Mail.

The example documents are fillable online. You may also print and hand write in dark ink. Make sure your handwriting is readable.
