Section One:

Information About Petitioning to Establish the Date and Place of Birth to Obtain a Birth Certificate

What is a Delayed Registration of Birth?

When an individual was born in North Dakota, but their birth wasn't registered with the North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services Vital Records Division, if valid and adequate evidence is provided to the Vital Records Division, the birth can be registered and a birth certificate issued.

You must first attempt to register the birth through the North Dakota Vital Records Division.

Section 23-02.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code gives the general requirements for delayed registration of birth through the Vital Records Division.

Chapter 33-04-06 of the North Dakota Administrative Code gives the specifics of what type of evidence is required for the Vital Records Division to allow delayed registration of birth and to issue a birth certificate.

- All certificates of birth registered one year or more after the date of birth are marked "Delayed" and show the date of the delayed registration.
- If the birth is registered seven days after the birth, but within one year of the date of birth, the birth certificate isn't marked "Delayed."

If you're unable to register the birth through the North Dakota Vital Records Division:

When an individual can't register the birth through the process set out by the Vital Records Division, the individual may petition a North Dakota state district court to establish the date and place of birth. If the district court judge establishes the date and place of birth, the judge orders the Vital Records Division to issue a birth certificate.

Chapter 32-37 of the North Dakota Century Code gives the requirements for this type of petition. The individual petitioning the District Court must prove to the judge that they meet all of the requirements. Chapter 32-37 is also available at the end of this guide.

If your circumstances are complex, or you're not sure if this is the appropriate court process for your circumstances, consult a lawyer who can agree to represent you.

Can this Court Process be Used if the Birth Occurred in a Different State (Not in North Dakota?)

The text of Chapter 32-37 of the North Dakota Century Code doesn't specifically state if this court process can be used for an individual who wasn't born in North Dakota.

Since ND Legal Self Help Center staff can't point you to specific text in Chapter 32-37, staff can't answer this question. The answer requires an interpretation of Chapter 32-37, which is part of legal representation. Center staff can't represent you under any circumstances.

If you currently live in North Dakota, but you or your minor child weren't born in North Dakota, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota to answer whether you can ask a North Dakota state district court to establish the date and place of birth.

Who Are The Parties?

Petitioner – The individual making the request.

- If you're 18 years of age or older and petitioning to establish your own date and place of birth, you're the Petitioner.
- If you're petitioning on behalf of a minor child (less than 18 years old) the Petitioner must be:
 - 18 years of age or older; and
 - The minor child's parent or legal guardian.

Respondent – The person or persons you ask the judge to order to do something. The Petitioner arranges for service of the Notice of Hearing and Petition on each Respondent.

- The North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services Division of Vital Records is a Respondent.
- Depending of your specific circumstances, there may be other respondents. Consult a lawyer for assistance to determine if there are any other respondents you need to list on your petition.

What are the Residency Requirements for the Petitioner?

According to N.D.C.C. § 32-37-04, you may petition the court to establish the date and place of birth only if you, the Petitioner, meet all of the following residency requirements:

1. You're a citizen of the United States;
2. You've been a resident of the state of North Dakota for one year before filing the petition; and
3. You've been a resident of the North Dakota county for more than 90 days before filing the petition.

If you petition the court to establish the date of place and birth of a minor child, you and the minor child must meet the requirements listed above!

Is There Help Available for Creating Legal Documents?

If you need assistance creating your legal documents, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota.

ND Legal Self Help Center staff and court system staff can't help you create or prepare your legal documents.

Does the ND Legal Self Help Center Have Forms to Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth?

No. The ND Legal Self Help Center doesn't have a packet of forms for petitioning a North Dakota state district court to establish the date and place of birth.

If you decide to represent yourself, you create and prepare your own legal documents. Names and descriptions of documents you need to create and prepare are listed throughout this guide.

A variety of General-Use forms are available through the ND Legal Self Help Center. You may find the General-Use forms of interest as a starting point for creating your own legal documents.

You're required to pay the newspaper's fees for publication.

- A hearing is required. Notice of the hearing must be published in the newspaper of the North Dakota county where you file the Petition. Notice must be published for two consecutive weeks.

Lawyer Resources and Limited Legal Representation

You're not required to hire a lawyer to bring a civil case in North Dakota State District Court. If you represent yourself, you must follow all of the same rules, laws and procedures as a lawyer.

ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/finding-a-lawyer has more information about finding a lawyer.

Lawyer Resources

- Legal Services of North Dakota is a non-profit organization, providing free legal assistance to North Dakota residents in a variety of matters based on income. Legal Services of North Dakota can also determine whether an applicant meets the income requirements for the Volunteer Lawyers program that offers low-cost legal assistance based on income. The phone number is (800) 634-5263 and the website is lsnd.org.
- The State Bar Association of North Dakota provides a lawyer referral service to match paying clients with lawyers. The phone number is (866) 450-9579 and the website is sband.org. You pay $30.00 for a 30 minute consultation with a lawyer.
- Dakota Plains Legal Services is a non-profit legal services organization that provides free legal assistance to low-income individuals, older Americans and veterans. Dakota Plains Legal Services (DPLS) has eight offices and serves communities across South Dakota and North Dakota, including nine tribal nations. DPLS is committed to increasing access to justice with quality legal assistance. Contact information is available on the DPLS webpage of dpls.org.

- For a list of all lawyers who are licensed to practice in North Dakota, go to the North Dakota Supreme Court website at ndcourts.gov/Lawyers. You can narrow your search by name or location.

Limited Legal Representation

Lawyers licensed to practice in North Dakota may provide Limited Legal Representation in civil cases. Limited Legal Representation (sometimes called “unbundling”) is a way a lawyer can help you with part of your case while you do the rest of your case. You pay for the part of the case the lawyer handled.

For example:

- You may want a lawyer to give you an expert opinion about your options, or your legal rights and responsibilities;
- You can consult with a lawyer to prepare or review your legal documents, but attend hearings yourself;
- You can represent yourself through the whole case, and periodically consult with a lawyer who can coach you on the law, procedures and strategy;
- You can do the preparation yourself and hire a lawyer just to make court appearances for you.

You and the lawyer must agree in writing to Limited Legal Representation.

North Dakota Free Legal Answers

This civil legal program is a partnership of the American Bar Association and the State Bar Association of North Dakota.

The purpose of the program is to provide free answers to specific civil legal question to low-moderate income North Dakotans who submit their questions online. Anonymous volunteer attorneys answer your question, but can’t represent you.

Go to nd.freelegalanswers.org or information about the program, the online application, and, if you qualify, ask your civil legal question.

This program doesn’t provide any assistance with criminal legal questions.

Section Two:

The Petition Process to Establish Date and Place of Birth to Obtain a Birth Certificate

Residency Requirements for the Petitioner

Important! According to N.D.C.C. § 32-37-04, you may petition the court to establish the date and place of birth only if you, the Petitioner, meet all of the following residency requirements:

1. You're a citizen of the United States;
2. You've been a resident of the state of North Dakota for one year before filing the petition; and
3. You've been a resident of the North Dakota county for more than 90 days before filing the petition.

If you petition the court to establish the date of place and birth of a minor child, you and the minor child must meet the requirements listed above!**

Step One: Gather Your Documentation & Other Evidence

Chapter 32-37 of the North Dakota Century Code requires you, the Petitioner, to prove the date of birth and city, county, and state of birth, citizenship status, and the names and addresses of the birth parents, including the birth mother's maiden name.

If you, the Petitioner, are petitioning to establish your own date of birth and city, county, and state of birth, at minimum, you must prove the following to the North Dakota State District Court:

- The Petitioner is a citizen of the United States;
 - If the Petitioner was born outside the boundaries of the territorial United States, enough evidence to prove:
 - The Petitioner is a citizen of the United States; and
 - The basis for the Petitioner's citizenship.
- The Petitioner has lived in North Dakota for at least the past year;
- The Petitioner is currently living in a North Dakota county, and has been living in that county for at least the past 90 days;

- The Petitioner’s date of birth and the city, county, and state of birth;
- The Petitioner’s gender;
- If the Petitioner was born within the United States, whether or not the Petitioner’s parents were transient aliens or alien public ministers or consuls;
- The names of the Petitioner’s parents, including the mother’s maiden name; and
- The addresses of the Petitioner’s parents, if the Petitioner’s parents are alive.

If you, the Petitioner, are petitioning on behalf of a minor child (less than 18 years old) to establish the minor child’s date of birth and city, county, and state of birth, at minimum, you must prove the following to the North Dakota State District Court:

- The Petitioner’s relationship to the minor child;
- The minor child is a citizen of the United States;
 - If the minor child was born outside the boundaries of the territorial United States, enough evidence to prove:
 - The minor child is a citizen of the United States; and
 - The basis for citizenship.
- The minor child and you, the Petitioner, have lived in North Dakota for at least the past year;
- The minor child is currently living with the Petitioner in a North Dakota county, and has been living in that county for at least the past 90 days;
- The minor child’s date of birth and city, county, and state of birth;
- The minor child’s gender;
- If the minor child was born within the United States, whether or not the minor child’s parents were transient aliens or alien public ministers or consuls;
- The names of the minor child’s parents, including the mother’s maiden name; and
- The addresses of the minor child’s parents, if the minor child’s parents are alive.

Create an evidence list of documentation, potential witness testimony, and any other evidence.

Start by creating a two-column evidence list. In one column, list everything you’re required to prove to the court from Pages 9-10. In the second column, list the documentation, or other evidence, that proves each item in the first column.

- An example of a two-column evidence list is available at the end of this Informational Guide.

Some examples of documentation are:

- A notarized Affidavit (or unsworn Declaration) from a person with first-hand knowledge of the birth (the judge assigned to your Petition may require the person to appear at the hearing);
- A witness with first-hand knowledge of the birth;
- Social Security record;
- Federal Census record;
- Original birth notice in a newspaper;
- School record;
- Vaccination record;
- Insurance policy;
- Passport;
- Voter registration card;
- Church baptismal and/or church cradle roll record; or
- Medical, hospital, or dental record.

This list doesn't include all possible examples of documentation.

You make all decisions about how to prove the requirements of establishing the date of birth, and city, county, and state of birth. The ND Legal Self Help can't advise you. If you need assistance, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota.

Gather your documentation and other evidence to include as exhibits with your Petition.

Arrange for witness testimony.

Depending on the type of documentation and other evidence you decide to use, you may need to get certified copies.

- Contact the state government agency directly and ask how you can get a certified copy.

Make a copy of your documentation and type or write an exhibit identifier on each copy.

For example, Exhibit A, Exhibit B, Exhibit C.

When you refer to your documentation in your Petition document, include the name you gave the Exhibit.

A hearing is required. You present the documentation you include with your Petition and witness testimony (if any) at the hearing.

Keep the originals of your documentation in a file or other safe place. Once a hearing date is scheduled, you need to make sure you have the documentation available for the hearing.

If a witness is unable or unwilling to appear at the hearing voluntarily, you may need the Clerk of Court to issue a subpoena. Only a Clerk of Court or a lawyer for a party are allowed to issue a subpoena.

- Information about subpoenas is available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/subpoenas.

Step Two: Create Your Legal Documents

Three Documents are Required:

1. The Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth;
2. The Affidavit (or Declaration) of Petitioner; and
3. The Confidential Information Form.

One Document May be Required by a District Court:

1. Notice of Hearing.

Create the Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth:

A Petition is a written request for an Order granting the relief the Petitioner is seeking. The Petition describes in short, plain statements that you, the Petitioner, are entitled to relief, and includes the request, or requests, for relief.

The Caption (Top) of the Petition must include the following:

- The name of the North Dakota county where you currently live, and have lived for at least the last 90 days.
 - If you're the Petitioner for a minor child, the child must also live in the North Dakota county for at least the last 90 days.
- The Judicial District of the North Dakota county.
 - A map of North Dakota counties and their Judicial Districts is available at ndcourts.gov/court-locations. Click on the county to find the Judicial District.
- The full name of you, the Petitioner.

- The North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services Vital Records Division listed as Respondent.
 - Depending on your circumstances, you may need to list additional Respondents. Consult a lawyer if you need assistance.
- A space for the case number.
 - Case Number: _____
 - The case number is assigned and filled in if your Petition is accepted for filing by the clerk of court in Step Three.
- The title of your Petition.
 - If you're petitioning to establish your own date and place of birth, the title is "Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth"
 - If you're petitioning on behalf of a minor child, the title is "Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth of a Minor Child"

Don't include the following in your Petition:

- Don't include full birthdates.
 - Instead of the full birthdate, use the birth year.
 - For example: 1990 instead of ~~1/1/1990~~.
- Don't include the name of a minor child.
 - Instead, refer to the minor child by the child's initials.
 - For example: J.J.D. instead of ~~John James Doe~~.
- The full birthdate and the minor child's name are provided to the District Court in a separate document called the Confidential Information Form.

At minimum, the Petition must include the following:

- Statements addressing each of the things you must prove to the court.
 - See Step One for the list of what you must prove.
 - Review Chapter 32-37, specifically Section 32-37-02. Chapter 32-37 is included at the end of this guide.
 - If you include documentation, refer to your documentation using the exhibit letters you assigned when you marked the exhibits in Step One.
- Statements of the reasons you're bringing the Petition and the steps you took to obtain a birth certificate from the Vital Records Division.
 - If you include documentation, refer to your documentation by using the exhibit letters you assigned when you marked the exhibits in Step One.
- Requests for relief, also called demands for relief.
 - Tell the court what you want the court to do.

- Dated and signed by you, the Petitioner.
 - Directly following your signature, write or type your printed name, address, email address, and phone number.
 - If your mailing and street addresses are different, include both.
- Your verification of the correctness, truth or authenticity of the petition.
 - Your verification statement comes after the date and signature block on the Petition.

You may find two general-use forms useful as a starting point for creating your Petition. The general-use forms are available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/general-use-forms.

- Caption and Signature (Petition) Form
- Verification (Petition) Form

A formatting example of a Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth is available at the end of this Informational Guide.

The example Petition is included only as a formatting example. The ND Legal Self Help Center doesn't guarantee or certify its accuracy or legal sufficiency. Use at your own risk.

Create the Affidavit (or Declaration) of Petitioner:

An Affidavit is a written statement of fact given by you, the Petitioner. Include the facts from the Petition about which you have first-hand knowledge. The Affidavit must be dated and signed in front of a notary public, clerk of court, or other notarial officer.

A Declaration is a written statement of fact given by you, the Petitioner. Include the facts from the Petition about which you have first-hand knowledge. Notarization isn't required when a Declaration will be filed with a North Dakota state district court in a civil case and meets the requirements as in Rule 11\(a\)\(2\) of the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure, and Chapter 31-15 of the North Dakota Century Code.

In other words, it's your written testimony of the facts you included in your Petition.

- The Caption (Top) of the Affidavit (or Declaration) must include the exact information included in the caption of the Petition. Except the title of the Affidavit is "Affidavit of Petitioner" (the title of the Declaration is "Declaration of Petitioner".)
- Don't include the following in your Affidavit (or Declaration):
 - Don't include full birthdates.
 - Instead of the full birthdate, use the birth year.
 - For example: 1990 instead of ~~1/1/1990~~.

- Don't include the name of a minor child.
 - Instead, refer to the minor child by the child's initials.
 - For example: J.J.D. instead of ~~John James Doe~~.
- The full birthdate and the minor child's name are provided to the District Court in a separate document called the Confidential Information Form.
- Dated and signed by you, the Petitioner.
 - Directly following your signature, write or type your printed name, address, email address, and phone number.
 - If your mailing and street addresses are different, include both.

You may find the following general-use forms useful as a starting point for creating your Affidavit (or Declaration).

- Affidavit (Petition) Form;
- Declaration (Petition) Form;

A formatting example of a Declaration of Petitioner is available at the end of this Informational Guide.

The example Declaration is included only as a formatting example. The ND Legal Self Help Center doesn't guarantee or certify its accuracy or legal sufficiency. Use at your own risk.

Prepare the Confidential Information Form:

Full birthdates and the names of minor children are considered confidential and aren't allowed to appear in documents filed with a North Dakota state district court.

However, the District Court needs to know the full birthdate and names of minor children in order to make decisions on petitions to establish the date and place of birth.

The full birthdates and names of minor children are provided to the court on a Confidential Information Form.

A fillable Confidential Information Form is provided at the end of this guide.

Prepare the Notice of Hearing:

You may be required to prepare a Notice of Hearing. This depends on the Court.

Section 32-37-03 states that "the clerk of district court with whom [the] petition is filed shall issue a notice ... fixing a time and place for the hearing upon [the] petition."

Some courts prepare the Notice of Hearing.

However, some courts may require you, the Petitioner, to prepare the Notice of Hearing.

If you're required by the court to prepare the Notice of Hearing, an example is available at the end of this guide.

The example Notice of Hearing is included only as a formatting example. The ND Legal Self Help Center doesn't guarantee or certify its accuracy or legal sufficiency. Use at your own risk.

Make Copies of the Completed Documents:

Make two copies of the following completed documents:

1. The Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth;
2. The Affidavit (or Declaration) of Petitioner;
3. The Confidential Information Form; and
4. The Notice of Hearing (if required by the District Court where you file).

Make two copies of all of the exhibits you referred to in your Petition.

Keep one copy for your records. You serve the other copies in Step Four.

Step Three: File the Original Petition Documents With the Clerk of Court; Get a Hearing Date

Contact information for clerks of court by county is available at ndcourts.gov/court-locations.

File the originals of the following completed documents with the clerk of court:

- The Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth;
- The Affidavit (or Declaration) of Petitioner;
- The Confidential Information Form;
- The Notice of Hearing (if required by the Court where you file); and
- Copies of all documentation/exhibits you reference in your Petition.

If the clerk of court accepts your documents for filing, the clerk assigns a case number. Make sure the case number is written on all of your documents.

You're required to pay a $160.00 filing fee.

Forms and instructions for asking the court to waive the $160.00 filing fee are available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/fee-waiver.

Get a hearing date and time from the clerk of court.

A hearing is required. If you're required to prepare a Notice of Hearing, get the hearing date, time, and location from the clerk of court. Write the date, time, and location on the Notice of Hearing and sign and date the document.

If the clerk of court prepares the Notice of Hearing, you may be handed the completed Notice of Hearing with the date, time, and location. If the Notice of Hearing will be mailed to you, you may ask the clerk of court for the hearing date, time, and location.

Step Four: Notice of Hearing Published in the Newspaper; Serve Copies of the Petition Documents on Each Respondent

Section 32-37-03 requires publication of the Notice of Hearing in the newspaper of the North Dakota county where you file your Petition.

The Notice of Hearing must be published for two consecutive weeks. The last publication in the newspaper must happen at least ten days before the date of the hearing.

Depending on the District Court where you file, you may be required to take the Notice of Hearing document to the newspaper, or the court may handle it for you.

If you're required to publish the Notice of Hearing in the newspaper, contact the newspaper in the county for information on the newspaper's requirements and the fee for publishing the notice for two consecutive weeks.

After publication of the Notice of Hearing is complete, you receive an Affidavit (or Declaration) of Publication from the newspaper.

As soon as possible, file the Affidavit (or Declaration) of Publication with the clerk of court. The District Court may not hold the hearing if you don't file the Affidavit (or Declaration) of Publication.

As soon as possible, arrange to serve copies of the Petition documents and the Notice of Hearing on the Respondents.

Filing a document isn't the same as serving a document.

Filing doesn't meet the requirements of service. Proof of service of the document(s) must be filed with the court.

Each Respondent you listed on the Petition must be served with one copy of the following completed documents:

- The Petition to Establish Date and Place of Birth;
- The Affidavit (or Declaration) of Petitioner;
- All documentation/exhibits you reference in your Petition; and
- The Notice of Hearing with the date, time and location of the hearing.

When you serve a North Dakota state government agency, you may serve the documents on any of the following:

- The managing head of the agency;
- The North Dakota Attorney General; or
- An Assistant North Dakota Attorney General.

The documents must be served as required by Rule 4 of the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.

- For information about the requirements and the process of serving documents as required by Rule 4, go to ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/service-in-a-civil-action. Carefully review the service information to start a civil action in this section.

You must provide proof of service for each Respondent to the district court.

A completed and signed Certificate of Service, Declaration of Service, or Affidavit of Service from the person who served the documents is your proof of service.

Blank Declaration of Service forms are available at the link above.

File proof of service with the clerk of court as soon as possible before the date of the hearing. If you don't provide proof of service, the court won't act on your petition.

Section 32-37-04 allows that “[a]ny citizen of the United States may appear at the hearing ... and shall be heard in favor of or in opposition to the petition... .”

However, anyone opposing your Petition, must put their opposition in writing and file it with the District Court before the date of the hearing.

Step Five: Prepare for the Hearing

After the Petition is filed, the case is assigned to a judge. The judge presides over the hearing and decides whether to grant your Petition.

Prepare Your Case:

You, the Petitioner, must prove the statements in your Petition.

Caution! Preparing a case is often a complex and confusing process. You're held to the same requirements and responsibilities as a lawyer, even if don't understand the rules or procedures.

You need to conduct additional research to prepare.

Subpoenas: If you need a witness to appear at the hearing or require production of documents, electronically stored information or other tangible things, you may need the Clerk of Court to issue a subpoena. Only a Clerk of Court or a lawyer for a party may issue a subpoena.

- Information about subpoenas is available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/subpoenas.

Evidence: You're required to follow the North Dakota Rules of Evidence when presenting your own evidence and when objecting to the evidence presented by other parties.

- An Evidence Research Guide is available.

Step Six: Attend the Hearing

Section 32-37-04 allows that “[a]ny citizen of the United States may appear at the hearing ... and shall be heard in favor of or in opposition to the petition... .”

However, anyone opposing your Petition, must put their opposition in writing and file it with the District Court before the date of the hearing.

Attend The Hearing:

Organize the information, documents, etc. that you think you need for the hearing. At minimum, prepare an outline of your remarks and arguments.

If the Hearing is Held In-Person, Arrive Early to the Courthouse on the Date of the Hearing:

Don't miss your hearing date and time. If you have a serious, unavoidable reason you can't get to court on the date and time scheduled for the hearing, call the Court as soon as you can.

If the Hearing is Held by Zoom, Make Sure You Can Connect to the Zoom Hearing:

If your hearing is held electronically by Zoom, well before the hearing begins, make sure you can connect and understand how to function in Zoom.

Don't be late to the Zoom hearing. If you have a serious, unavoidable reason you can't attend the hearing on the date and time scheduled for the hearing, call the Court as soon as you can.

Conduct of the Hearing:

The judge hears both sides and then issues a final Findings of Fact and Order. Sometimes, the final Findings of Fact and Order is issued at the end of the hearing. Often, the final Findings of Fact and Order is issued at a later date.

In general, a hearing proceeds in the following order:

- Opening Statements
 - Each party gives an opening statement. Usually, the Petitioner goes first.
- Petitioner Presents Witnesses and Evidence
 - The Petitioner presents their case first. The Respondent(s) may cross-examine witnesses and object to the Petitioner's evidence.
- Respondent Presents Witnesses and Evidence
 - Each Respondent presents their case after the Petitioner. The Petitioner may cross-examine witnesses and object to the Respondent's evidence.
- Closing Arguments
 - Each party gives a closing statement. Usually the Respondent(s) goes first.

Before You Leave the Hearing:

Make sure you understand what happens next. Ask if you're not sure what, if anything, you need to do next.

Step Seven: The District Court Judge Issues Findings of Fact and Order

The Judge May Prepare Their Own Findings of Fact and Order.

If the judge prepares their own Findings of Fact and Order, a signed copy is mailed to you.

However, You, the Petitioner, May Be Required to Prepare a Proposed Findings of Fact and Order for the Judge to Sign.

If the judge requires you, the Petitioner, to prepare proposed Findings of Fact and Order, complete Step 7.

Proposed Findings of Fact and Order:

Review Rule 7.1 of the North Dakota Rules of Court carefully!

Findings of Fact are the judge's written determination of the facts made from the evidence presented at the hearing. This explains what facts the judge found to be true.

The Order is the ruling of law made by the judge based on, or in connection with, the findings of fact. These are the legal consequences of the facts the judge found to be true.

The judge decides whether the Petitioner's proposed Findings of Fact and Order are appropriate. If the judge decides they are appropriate, the judge signs and dates the Findings of Fact and Order.

The Findings of Fact and Order isn't official until signed and dated by the judge.

A formatting example of proposed Findings of Fact and Order is available at the end of this guide.

Step 8: Findings of Fact & Order Filed With the North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services Vital Records Division

Important!! Step Eight only happens if the District Court judge assigned to your Petition establishes the date and place of birth in the Findings of Fact & Order.

Following the hearing, if the date and place of birth are established:

- Request a certified copy of the Findings of Fact and Order from the Clerk of Court.
- Send the certified copy of the Findings of Fact and Order to the North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services, Vital Records Division, along with a check for $15.00.
