

North Dakota Appellate Case System

Supreme Court E-file Training

CHANNING BACKES, BUSINESS ANALYST

PETRA H. MANDIGO HULM, CLERK

Amended rules

N.D.R.App.P. 3, 12, 25, 31 and
Appendix B

Rule 3

Notice of appeal now has to be served by the filer, not the Supreme Court Clerk's office

Rule 12

Except for self-represented and prisoner parties, you will pay filing fees online. If the payment fails or is canceled, the matter will be referred to the court to consider dismissal. The court will not refund fees for filer error. Fees will be refunded only for court or system error.

Your banking statement will show "nCourt*ND Supreme Court"

For fees paid by check, etc., the prior rule of 14 days, then void applies still.

Rule 25 and Appendix B

This rule is substantially changed and Appendix B is new. Please review them.

Each document must be filed separately.

Service must be through C-track unless the recipient cannot accept e-service. If an email address is known, they must e-serve. Proof of service must be filed or the document will be rejected.

Text-only orders

Rule 25 and Appendix B

This rule is substantially changed and Appendix B is new. Please review them.

Each document must be filed separately.

Service must be through C-track unless the recipient cannot accept e-service. If an email address is known, they must e-serve. Proof of service must be filed or the document will be rejected.

Text only orders

Public Portal