Subject: Comment upon Proposed Rules

Madame Clerk;

By way of comment upon the Rules proposed by the Joint Procedure Committee, and by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, I wish to suggest that the Rules proposed by the Clerk of the Supreme Court be referred to the Joint Procedure Committee for study and comment before being acted upon by the Court. Well intentioned amendments intended to address a particular problem can often cause unforeseen problems for the practicing bar. The Joint Procedure Committee is best suited to foresee and avoid those problems.

Thank you for the opportunity to offer comment. Bob
