Corman v. State

No. 20120307

Per Curiam.

[¶1] Ryan Corman appeals from a district court order summarily dismissing his application for post-conviction relief. In 2008, Corman was convicted of contributing to the delinquency or deprivation of a minor, and this Court affirmed the conviction. State v. Corman, 2009 ND 85, 765 N.W.2d 530. Corman argues on appeal that the district court erred in summarily dismissing his application for post-conviction relief, contending an evidentiary hearing was necessary to develop the issues and complete the record. We summarily affirm under N.D.R.App.P. 35.1(a)(6) and (7); see Everett v. State, 2010 ND 4, ¶ 1, 789 N.W.2d 282 (citing Klose v. State, 2008 ND 143, ¶ 10, 752 N.W.2d 192 (explaining res judicata precludes claims or variations of claims raised in previous proceedings and misuse of process precludes claims that could have been raised in a prior post-conviction proceeding or other proceeding)).
