Interest of B.B.P., J.R.P. and A.D.P.
Nos. 20140374, 20140375 & 20140376

Per Curiam.

[¶1] J.P., the father of B.B.P., J.R.P., and A.D.P., appealed from a juvenile court judgment terminating his parental rights. J.P. argues the juvenile court erred by finding the children are deprived, deprivation likely will continue, and the children likely will suffer serious physical, mental, moral, or emotional harm if placed in J.P.'s custody. We conclude the juvenile court was not clearly erroneous in finding the children are deprived, deprivation likely will continue, and the children likely will suffer serious physical, mental, moral, or emotional harm. We summarily affirm under N.D.R.App.P. 35.1(a)(2).
