Subject: In the Matter of a Petition to Permit Temporary Provision of Legal Services by Qualified Attorneys From Outside North Dakota

IN THE OFFICE OF THE
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
DECEMBER 16, 2016
STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

December 16, 2016

The Admission Rules should apply to everyone equally across the board. For the past several years I have hired attorneys from out of state that all had to follow the rules. My office had to make accommodations and case shift until the process was completed. From the very quick review of the Affidavit that was submitted for exception, it would appear the applicant has no respect for the North Dakota Rules. This raises even more concern regarding somebody who wants to practice in our state. If he doesn't respect the rules of admissions, will he respect other rules (State and Local) when representing clients before the court?

I respectfully object to permitting attorneys from outside North Dakota to represent persons in North Dakota without going through the proper application and admission process.
