Patty Miller,

I'm writing to request that the standing rock defendants not only get out of state representation, but are all allowed their own individual day in court, and that they are allowed to use their voices and evidence to speak to what they were doing and why. I'd prefer if they weren't even tried in North Dakota as the state has so far proven to not understand civil rights, or frankly, what the truth actually is.

Thank you,

Robyn Thanghe
