NOTICE OF ORDER SUSPENDING ATTORNEY

Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of North Dakota
Petitioner

v.

Kristin A. Overboe, Respondent
No. 20220352

The North Dakota Supreme Court considered the application of disciplinary counsel's office requesting Kristin A. Overboe be interim suspended from the practice of law in North Dakota until further order of the court, pending final disposition of the disciplinary proceedings predicated upon the complaint filed. The application stated that the documents submitted establish grounds to believe that Overboe has been experiencing a gradual, yet consistent, degeneration of her mental health. Further, that the degeneration has reached a point where it is the belief of the Office of Disciplinary Counsel that Overboe can no longer competently represent her clients and poses an imminent threat to their interests and any potential future clients. In response, Overboe stated "I really don't want to do this. I'm too tired. You guys can just suspend me."

The Supreme Court ordered that Kristin A. Overboe's license to practice law is SUSPENDED effective immediately, and until further order of this Court, pending final disposition of the disciplinary proceedings predicated upon the complaint filed.
