Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of North Dakota
Petitioner

v.

Kristin A. Overboe,
Respondent
No. 20230090

The North Dakota Supreme Court considered the report of a hearing panel of the Disciplinary Board recommending Kristin A. Overboe be suspended from the practice of law in North Dakota.

Overboe failed to answer the complaint and was in default. The hearing panel found that Overboe was retained in January 2021 to represent a client in a divorce matter. Overboe failed to properly communicate with the client. Overboe failed to serve completed discovery answers on the opposing party, which led to a prohibition on introducing certain evidence and testimony at trial. She was not prepared for trial and the client's position was damaged. The trial judge negatively critiqued Overboe. She failed to provide the client with a copy of the decision following trial. In June of 2022, Overboe notified the client she was withdrawing as her counsel and would not be filing an appeal. She did not withdraw, and without client authorization, on July 22, 2022, filed a notice of appeal on the client's behalf. The client then terminated Overboe. Despite requests from the client, Overboe failed to return the client's documents. After considering aggravating and mitigating factors, the hearing panel recommended the sanction of suspension for six months and one day, effective immediately.

The Supreme Court accepted the hearing panel's report and ordered Overboe suspended from the practice of law in North Dakota six months and one day, effective immediately. The Court ordered Overboe to pay the costs and expenses of the disciplinary proceed, pay restitution to the client protection fund, and comply with N.D.R. Lawyer Discipl. 6.3 regarding notice.
